Summary of the Course

This is a hybrid course. It is available to both undergraduate and postgraduate students. The content, delivery and assessment will be identical for both groups of students.

In extension to learning some basic skills and concepts in music education, this course will think deeply about some of the most critical issues facing music education. Knowledge will be integrated in pedagogy and linked to professional practice. This course is designed with a view to students eventually becoming leaders in the field and continue to improve the quality of music education in Australia.

Course Learning Outcomes

1. Develop and articulate a philosophy of education
2. Understand the syllabus requirements for music education in senior schools
3. Establish links with other members of the music education community and professional associations
4. Advocate for music education
5. Understand the scope and limitations of the quality of music education in Australia on the 2005 National Review of School Music Education
6. Critically evaluate and implement a variety of forms of assessment including musicology, composition, performance, and aural tasks appropriate to the field
7. Understand the role of parents in a quality music education and develop communication goals and strategies with parents
8. Reflect on pre-service teacher education in preparation for the field

Assessment

Assessment task	Weight	Due Date	Course Learning Outcomes Assessed
1. Resource kit	40%	02/08/2022 05:00 PM	1, 2, 5, 6, 8
2. Advocacy statement, personal philosophy and job application	60%	23/08/2022 05:00 PM	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8

Assessment 1: Resource kit

Due date 02/08/2022 05:00 PM

Task 1 - Assignment - 2000 words

Students will receive written feedback within three weeks of submission.

Additional details

Design a set of resources for a Stage 6 classroom to develop learning (chosen randomly by the lecturer from a list of Syllabus contexts). The resources should include lesson plans (one of which focuses on the delivery of Australian Music) for listening, performing, and composing. These should be linked to the needs of music teachers.

Use models provided in class, as well as Sydney Symphony education resources and other resources and examples provided as examples in class. Your resource should demonstrate an approach to teaching that you have developed in your study and related education.

Assessment 2: Advocacy statement, personal philosophy and job application

Due date 23/08/2022 05:00 PM

Task 2 - Portfolio - 3000 words

Students will receive written feedback within three weeks of submission.

This is the final assessment.

Additional details

Part A. Based on the issues discussed in lectures and seminars, develop a statement (3000 words) for music education, supporting it with appropriate resources and evidence. The statement should be readable by parents, principals, and others in the community. It should state that all children have the right to access a quality music education. It should include a statement outlined in Part B below.

Part.B The second section of this assignment requires you to outline your experience with teaching music and developing music education. This must be submitted as a hypothetical job application, (1000 words). You should relate this to your experience as a teacher and a musician.

Part.C As part of your hypothetical job application please complete an application letter. A successful CV is clearly laid out, demonstrating your strengths and addressing the requirements of the job being applied for (approx. 500 words).

Indicative length: Part A: 1,500 words, Part B: 1,000 words, Part C: 500 words

Recommended: /20 (FL PS CR DN HD)Weighting: 40%

NB: The ticks in the various boxes are designed to provide feedback to lecturers of equal weight in determining the recommended grade. Depending on the course, lecturers may also contextualise and/or amend the recommended grade. The recommended grade is tentative only, subject to standardisation processes and approval by the Faculty and Teaching Committee.
