

allowed to be incorporated legally?
given de facto acceptance from local authorities?
able to directly receive funding, and have their own bank accounts?
able to work in partnership with a local or international NGO who is willing to auspice the funds on their behalf?
allowed by authorities to hold meetings?
granted work rights?
given de facto acceptance of their work status from local authorities?
Do WRLOs have the same or different challenges? If different, please list them	Who could help	What can be done to address this?

- A
- B
- C
- etc

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• local authorities</li> <li>• Local UN Agency representatives</li> </ul>
Do they have a Human Rights approach to their work?

