unbelievable level of support over decades) that hit the mark: “I doubt that we will see the likes of Graham Hill in the revenue law area again, however, if I am wrong, then it will be a long time before we do. He was, as Professor Richard Vann said, and the press reported, a Titan in the field. We shall all miss him greatly.”

Richard Vann’s ‘titanic’ description is a further pointer to the fact that for Graham, law and education could not exist apart – through entire careers. He was involved in the education of judges in his own Federal Court; he was involved in educating judges in Thailand, judges in China – in judge education forums in the USA. He was aware of cultural, intellectual and philosophical issues involving the law and its application at all levels. Professor Faith Trent of Flinders University, a long time friend and colleague, understood so well that Graham “... es5n Tm()Treg#se709 609.74103 Tm205
