

Welcome to the 2019
UNSW Business School
Awards Ceremony

At UNSW Business School we are incredibly proud of the remarkable achievements of our students. Success comes in many forms and this

GUEST SPEAKER

MARINA GO

Marina Go is Chair of Suncorp Super Netball and Ovarian Cancer Australia, a non-executive director of Energy Australia, Autosports Group, 7-Eleven, Pro-Pac, and The Walkley Foundation, Chair of the Advisory Board for the Centre For Media Transition at the University of Technology Sydney, a director of PWC's Diversity Advisory Board, and author of the business book for women, Break Through: 20 Success Strategies for Female Leaders. Boss magazine named her as one of 20 True Leaders of 2016. Marina has over 25 years of leadership experience in the media industry, having started her career as a journalist. She founded the female leadership website Women's Agenda and food magazine disruptor Australian Good Taste and is a former Editor-in-chief of ELLE and Dolly magazines. Marina is the former Chair of the Wests Tigers NRL Club. She has an MBA from The Australian Graduate School of Management and is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and was recently featured in UNSW's Facing Equality campaign.

MASTERS OF CEREMONIES

WILLIAM CHEN

William is a third-year student who is currently completing his combined degree of Commerce and Computer Science. As one of the Co-Presidents of the UNSW Business Society, William serves as an active student voice for almost 10,000 business students at UNSW. By representing students on the UNSW Education Committee, William aims to create positive change in both the academic and personal lives of students.

JESSICA SUN

Jessica is a combined Commerce and Law student currently in her third year of study. Jessica is also passionate about providing students with a holistic university experience and aims to provide those opportunities in her capacity as one of the Co-Presidents of the UNSW Business Society, the largest student society at UNSW. Through her involvement in various business, consulting and volunteering roles, Jessica is proud to be an active member of the UNSW Business School community.
