

Widening Participation Theory of Change

Access, Equity & Inclusion

The Case for Action

A , 1990 2008 B
24 18% A , 67%
(., 2020).
16.8% , -
10.1% (1).
2020 B
9.4%
A (8) 2020
20% -

How will we have this impact

-
-
-
-
-
-
-

UNION: Multi-level Perspective of the Programme

UNION: Multi-level Perspective of the Programme

Our Theory of Change

 The Map

[Redacted text]

 The Network

[Redacted text]

 The Key

[Redacted text]

 The Guide

[Redacted text]

B & , 2000; , 2004). (A , 1999; -
2021). , - (, 2019; ,
2011; ., 2022). , - (,
, 2014). (& , 2015;

UNSW Widening Participation: Nested Theories of Change

Outputs

Objective	Outputs
Continue to develop targeted admission pathways linked to the educational outreach program to provide expanded opportunities for student access and

In School Workshops (Years 11 and 12)
Spring Into and Kick Winter

University Ambassadors (Spring and Winter)

On-campus experience days (Spring and Winter)

Regional Residential Program (Spring and Winter)

○

○

○

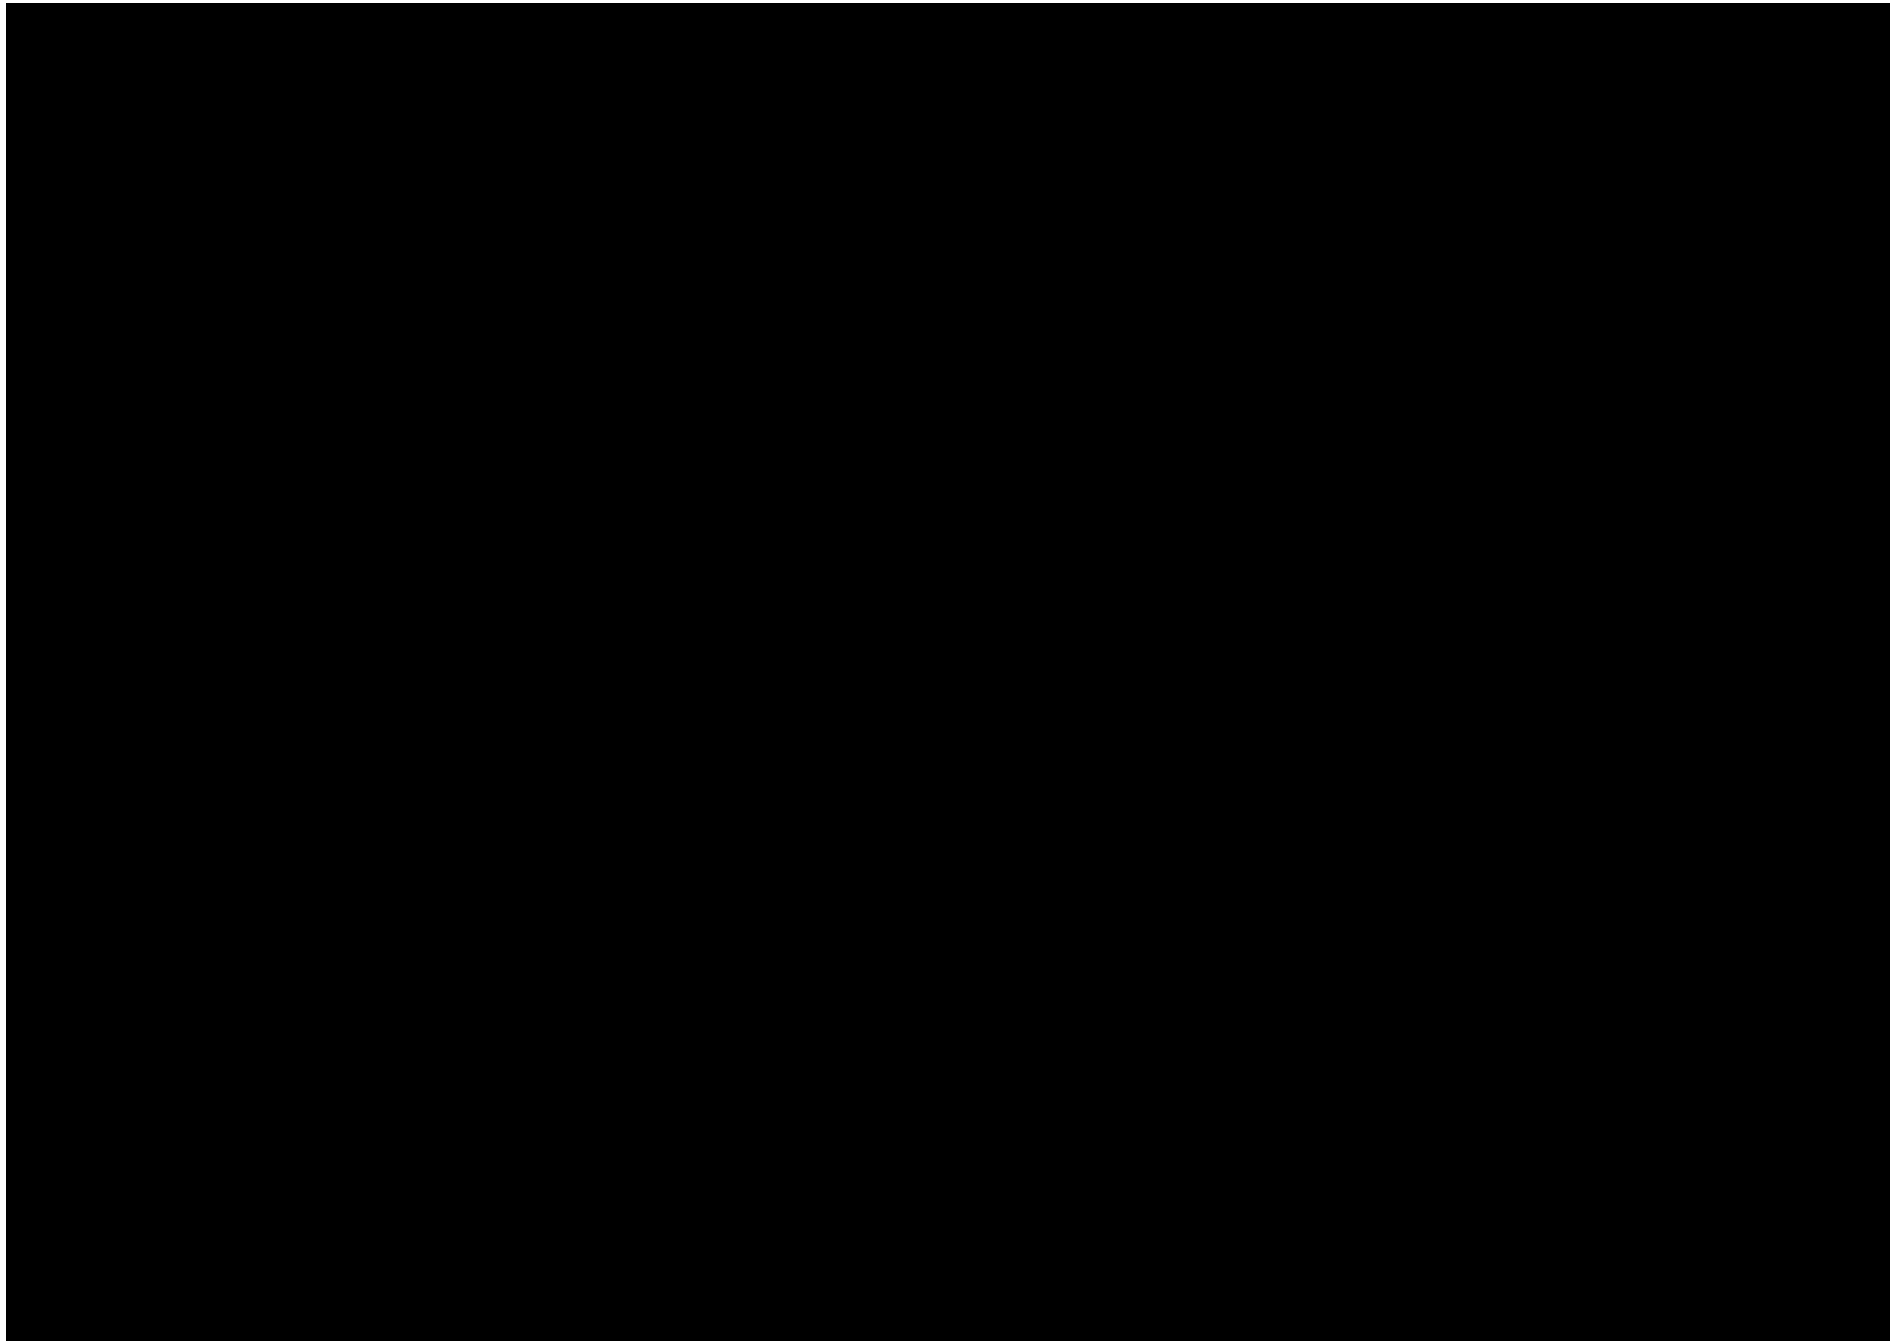

○

Engage UNSW students as co-designers, facilitators, mentors, powerful role models and partners for change

University Ambassadors

Develop strategic collaborative partnerships with secondary schools, other universities, workplace partners and leading NGOs to develop creative, sustainable, evidence-informed and evaluated approaches to widening participation

Schools

Output and Outcome Measurement

Evaluation Methods

Outcome and Impact Measurement

Outcomes	Indicators	Data Source
Students have increased confidence and motivation to transition to university		S
The Map
Capacity

Students develop their knowledge of available degrees and the opportunities and benefits of higher education

The Compass

Capacity

Capacity

References

