1. Preamble

Accountabilities
Responsible Officer	Senior Deputy Vice-Chancellor
Contact Officer	Director of Integrity Manager, Student Integrity Unit

Supporting Information
Supporting Documents	Nil
Related Documents	Student Complaint Procedures Student Misconduct Procedures Procedures for Dealing with Student Plagiarism: Handbook for Staff Research Code of Conduct Occupational Health and Safety Policy Acceptable use of UNSW Information and Communication Technology Resources Policy Acceptable use of UNSW Information and Communication Technology Resources Procedures Procedure for Handling Allegations of Research Misconduct
Superseded Documents	Student Code Policy, version 2.1 updated by the Acting Head of Governance, effective 29 February 2016
UNSW Statute and / or Regulation	University of New South Wales By-law
Relevant State / Federal Legislation	Nil
File Number	2016/08626

Definitions and Acronyms
Nil

Revision History

Version	Approved by	Approval date	Effective date	Sectio0 0 9 Sn 0 9 Ss12.3 (a m-1.13 (tn-m

Archived Document

- Are treated equitably, free from all forms of unlawful discrimination and harassment, including sexual harassment

- Conduct themselves in a manner conducive to the proper functioning of the University, recognising that a primary function of the University is the pursuit of academic excellence

- Actively participate in the learning process

- Attend scheduled course teaching and learning activities

- Submit assessment tasks by required dates and times, unless unforeseen or exceptional circumstances arise

- Behave ethically, avoiding any action or behaviour that would unfairly advantage or disadvantage either themselves or another student

- Comply with the conventions of academic scholarship and ensure the proper use of copyright material

- Ensure their academic activities are conducted safely and do not place others at risk of harm, including abiding by all ethics requirements in relation to that academic activity

- Be familiar with the programs and resources made available or recommended by the University to assist them in conducting their studies and research appropriately, including resources to help students avoid plagiarism and to comply with the ethics requirements of research

- Not behave in any way which impairs the reasonable freedom of other persons to pursue their studies, work or research or to participate in the life of the University.

Equity, respect and safety

Students are expected to:

- Treat all University staff, other students, and visitors to the University with courtesy, tolerance and respect. This extends to teaching staff in venues off-campus and online, and supervisors and others involved in workplace or clinical placements, fieldwork or other practicum

- Respect the rights of others to be treated equitably, free from all forms of unlawful discrimination, harassment and bullying

- Respect the rights of others to express political and religious views in a lawful manner

- Not engage in behaviour that is perceived to be threatening or intimidating or causes any person to fear for their personal safety or well-being

- Not behave in a way that disrupts or interferes with any teaching, learning or academic activity of the University or any political, cultural, social or sporting gathering conducted by the University or authorised to be held on a campus of the University

- Not engage in unlawful behaviour

- Comply with any reasonable direction or request from a UNSW staff member where the direction or request supports safety, good order and compliance with UNSW policy

- Not use, possess or supply a prohibited weapon or any prohibited substance on campus

- Not participate in any learning activity, such as, tutorials, laboratory class, under the influence of alcohol or a prohibited substance.

University resources

Students are expected to:

- Use and care for all University resources, such as buildings, equipment and grounds, library, information and communication technology resources, in a lawful and ethical manner, mindful of the need for resources to be shared by all members of the University community

- Use and care for resources, such as buildings, equipment and grounds, library, information and communication technology resources, in a lawful and ethical manner in venues off-campus and online, whilst on workplace or clinical placements, fieldwork or other practicum

- Not engage in behaviour that is detrimental to University property, including the University Library collection

- Not misuse library, computing or communications or other facilities in a manner which is unlawful or which will be detrimental to the rights and properties of others.

University reputation

Students are expected to:

- Conduct themselves in an appropriate manner while on a UNSW facilitated exchange program at an overseas university, including complying with relevant academic standards and protocols

- Conduct themselves in an appropriate manner while on workplace or clinical placements, fieldwork or other practicum

- Ensure their actions or inactions as a student do not harm, or bring into disrepute, the University's reputation or good standing

- Not use the University's name, reputation or crest for private gain or the gain of a third party, or private business or commercial purposes, without prior permission

- Not use University resources for private gain or the gain of a third party, or private business or commercial purposes, without prior permission

- Not engage in any fraudulent or corrupt conduct (for a definition about what constitutes fraud and corruption, see the University's Fraud and Corruption Prevention