

Planning, Policy, Partnerships and Programs –

How local government embeds social inclusion in daily life

Erla Ronan

Group Manager Community Services and Culture

Planning for social inclusion

- Embedding social inclusion in land use planning

Policy

- Inner West Affordable Housing Policy
 - Addressing absence of affordable housing for essential workers and others in the inner west
 - Targets and value capture to increase affordable housing stock
 - Provides strong basis for
-

Partnerships addressing homelessness

- Multi agency outreach teams in Ashfield and Newtown hot spots and annual street counts
 - Partners: Health Sydney LHD (mental health practitioners); FACS (Housing staff); Mission Australia; Exodus; Newtown Neighbourhood Centre; Partners in Recovery; ~~Council, Police~~
-

Programs supporting inclusion and wellbeing

Dementia Dance

- for people with dementia and their carer
 - collaboration
 - Vietnamese community
 - where people gather
 - evidence based
-

Wellbeing Initiatives

- Prevention of family and domestic violence - respectful relationships
 - Refugee Welcome Centre partnership
 - Scope and activate Gay Pride Centre
-

Call to action

