10. Demonstrate coherent and advanced knowledge of the underlying principles and concepts in one or more disciplines, and knowledge of research principles and methods.

3. Strategies and approaches to learning

3.1 Learning and teaching activities

This is a component of the UNSW Psychology Honours program. It consists of no formal classes: instead students meet with their supervisor(s) and undertake independent research.

3.2 Expectations of students

It is expected that students are aware of UNSW Assessment policy and understand how to apply for special consideration if they are unable to complete an assignment/exam due to illness and/or misadventure.

It is expected that students have read through the School of Psychology Student Guide.

All news updates and announcements will be made on the 'Announcements' forum on the Moodle page and/or by email. It is the student's responsibility to check Moodle and their student emails regularly to keep up to date.

4. Course schedule and structure

This course consists of no lecture material or face to face tutorials but will have weekly meetings with their supervisors. Students are expected to take an additional 420 hours of self-determined study to complete research and assessments.

Week

feedback and advice about research design, methodology, and analysis. Where possible, panel members are assigned so that at least one member has expertise in a similar area of psychology. At least three working days prior to the panel meeting, students are expected to provide each panel member with their written research proposal. At the panel meeting, student is expected to speak on each of these points, and to lead the discussion of the proposed research. At panel meetings these staff members will get the opportunity to gain some familiarity with the proposed research and to evaluate student's understanding of the area. Feedback will be provided.

This course will be provided in accordance with UNSW
